

I am writing regarding the proposed "Do Not Call" rule. I believe that it should stay the way it is. The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen the protections we have with our existing Telephone Privacy law. The amount of unwanted calls we used to get were staggering. I do not want to have to deal with that again. It is an imposition on my family's time.

Thank you -

Judy Inglehearn